*Barker Leavitt structures its relationships with clients in a way that ensures complete and open communication. We charge a flat fee for services on a monthly basis retainer. This is customary for lobbying law practices like ours in Washington, DC and the norm in our industry. Our structure allows for communications to remain open, unhindered, and for our clients to know exactly what our services cost and how to budget. For the additional two option years (years 6 and 7) we are proposing a modest inflationary adjustment of 1.95% for each year. This has been the same rate of increase on the contract that was in place for years 3-5 of the contract. *Additionally, this flat fee for services includes all business expenses incurred in the representation of Utah Transit Authority in Washington, DC, including all health and business insurance and licensing, and other associated benefits. Barker Leavitt also offers our clients complimentary access and use of our firm's conference rooms and facilities in our Capitol Hill offices as part of our flat retainer.
