

Achieving Organizational Excellence

- UTA Chief Enterprise Strategy Officer Alisha Garrett received the international Shingo Institute Rising Star award
- This award recognizes professionals who show their dedication to LEAN principles as they significantly impact their organizations
- The Shingo Institute is an international benchmarking authority on operational excellence
- This award reflects Alisha's commitment and leadership in implementing organizational excellence principles at UTA

